

Title	Genre	Synopsis	Eps x Duration	Transmedia Clips
Totally Totto	Drama	Totally Totto is a live action drama starring all human main cast - Isaac, Abby, Robert, Sir Fong and Dr Ng. Totto, the bunny rabbit, is a figment of Isaac's imagination. He will be depicted through a human-size puppet and will pop up when Issac requires help with science. However, when Totto begins his "Adventures in Science" with Issac, the duo zooms into an animated world where Isaac, Abby and Totto will become animated versions of themselves like the version seen in Sir Fong's Adventures in Science.	16 x 30 mins	16 x 3 mins
Hullet Tigers	Drama	Hullet High appoints a maverick Coach in a desperate bid to win the National Junior Rugby League Cup, to end a ten-year dry spell. Terry Cub, the Coach, recruits four delinquents as his core rugby talent team. But when these boys prove to be a disenchanted, quarrelsome bunch, and become an embarrassment to the school's reputation, the school board threatens to kick them out. Will these kids learn to overcome their differences to put team above self and prove their worth?	14 x 30 mins	7 x 3 mins
Mount Emily	Drama	Patsy Goh and Elena Tan get mysteriously whisked back in time to 1987 while digging around their school's backyard. Trapped in their mothers' Primary School bodies, the girls find themselves unprepared for life without gadgets, technology and the comforts they have been accustomed to. With the help of unexpected allies, the duo learns about real communication, how to be resilient with handy survival skills and that the grass isn't greener on the other side. They race against the clock to find the Magical Time Crystal to get them back home and stopping the evil Midnight Warriors from destroying all of existence.	12 x 30 mins	12 x 3 mins
SNOOP	Drama	Mallory Han, also known as "Snoops" works for her private investigator father. While working on a case, Mallory discovers Eliana Kang, the world's greatest detective and is taken on as an apprentice. She takes on a variety of crimes big and small, while trying to get to the bottom of the one case that truly matters to her – the mysterious disappearance of her best friend Anjali, and it leads her to take on the biggest villain of all the criminal genius known only as M.	12 x 30 mins	6 x 3 mins

Title	Genre	Synopsis	Eps x Duration	Transmedia Clips
Basic Mini-tary Training	Info-tainment	Four teams of children are enlisted together with their parents to survive in a back-to-basic field camp. Racing against the clock, relationship between parents and children crumble as the kids are thrown to the frontline to compete in a series of challenges while their parents can only stay on the side and instruct. The parent can use an ultimate lifeline – the Red Alarm Siren. The siren authorize the parent to step in and attempts a rescue effort. However, the clock will count down even faster and punishment will be meted out to those who fail to complete the missions.	10 x 30 mins	10 x 3 mins
Make it Count	Info-tainment	Make It Count is a programme that takes Math and applies it to the everyday and help children (as well as their parents) discover the joys of Math. This show will prove that there is more to Math than formulae and rote learning, and that not only are we living Math principles all the time without realizing it, when we become aware of it we can manipulate Math to improve our lives. If you have ever hated Math, ever been baffled by it, ever wanted to make sense of it, Make It Count is the programme for you.	12 x 30 mins	12 x 3 mins
The World According to Marie and Argo	Info-tainment	Set in Singapore and at 11 years old, Marie is your average primary school student, she struggles with finishing homework and figuring out why her broadband signal is so weak in her bedroom. Her trusty partner-in-crime, ARGO is an alien robot with a mission. He seems to be asking the same question but from a different perspective - what is broadband? Together they investigate the principles of S.T.E.M. and learn a thing or two about Singapore along the way.	13 x 30 mins	7 x 3 mins
Word Whiz or Slime Pit	Info-tainment	A gameshow designed to educate while leveraging on children's natural inclination to play, love for puzzles or games and sense of competition as a motivator. We designed the Slime Pit as a means of elimination. This wacky exit will appeal to their still immature and somewhat gross sense of humour. In the bonus round, the tables are turned. The child is the one with the power and control – the Word Whiz gets an opportunity to send the Host, an adult, to the Hot Seat and dump him into the Slime Pit!	11 x 30 mins	11 x 3 mins
The Museum	Info-tainment	The Museum is an interactive studio-based, history focused, game show for Primary school children. The show is set in a quirky fictional museum, where 2 teams of 2 will compete each week to answer questions and discover just how cool Singapore's history is!	11 x 30 mins	11 x 3 mins

Title	Genre	Synopsis	Eps x Duration	Transmedia Clips
Stickers Together	Shorts	In each five minute episode, Stick, Paste and Digi explore the magical world of Sticker World and solve the problems of other sticker characters along the way. While there is plenty of action, humour, and unpredictability, the trio's adventures is always rooted in "finding a family". Each character makes mistakes and learns important values that children can relate to. These include experimenting with ideas/concepts, embarking on an active lifestyle, and exploring themes of respect, resilience, responsibility, integrity and harmony.	20 x 5 mins	5 x 1 min
Cartoon Buddies	Shorts	Two kids from different backgrounds come together and share their love for art, drawing and cartoons. They develop a story and create their own characters, before an animation studio takes over and turns them into a 1-minute animated film. Through this little journey of storytelling and discovery, the kids learn about each other and grow a little together as a creative team. Friendship is a theme in all the stories – mirroring a young and new friendship formed behind the scenes by the creators.	11 x 5 mins	10 x 1 min
Epic vloggers of history	Shorts	From Marie Antoinette doing cake-decorating tutorials, to Marie Curie doing radioactive DIYs, to Sang Nila Utama making a pet lion vlog, each episode features different YouTubers playing famous historical characters, in a show that is a hilarious exploration of the past and the present. Each episode focuses on a single historical figure, speaking directly to camera. It is as if the episode is being recorded in that time period – so we could be in a tent with Napoleon as the Battle of Austerlitz rages outside. Characters are shot on green screen to allow the use of computer generated backgrounds and animation.	18 x 5 mins	18 x 1 min